

L. A. MILLER DIARY OF 1914

(EXCERPTED BY RON WILEY – CLARIFYING COMMENTS BY FRED LINDLEY)

NOTES TO READER: Mr. L. A. Miller wrote an entry in his journal for every day of the year. The dates/entries that appear below were selected and excerpted, because they reference Darrtown people, places, and events and/or portray life as it occurred during this particular year. The clarifying comments that appear in the right margin are provided on the assumption that some of Mr. Miller's terms and/or references may lose their meaning, with the passage of time. Most terms and/or references are clarified when they first appear in the collection of Mr. Miller's diaries and not addressed thereafter. Consequently, The L. A. Miller diaries are better understood, if one reads them in chronological order.

- A question mark within brackets [?] indicates that a word or phrase was illegible.
- Dots indicate that some text that preceded or followed the excerpt has been intentionally omitted.
- Content that appears in UPPER CASE font signifies commentary by the person who excerpted the diary.

If you can offer additional clarification, please contact the Darrtown.com webmaster.

Comment [FL1]: It will be interesting to see where this law course leads. At this point in time, L.A. Miller is a business man (Darrtown Telephone Company), furrier, and former school teacher/principal.

> 29: Game of Pedro at neighbors

Comment [FL2]: Internet search reveals that Pedro (pronounced "pedro") is an American trick-taking card game of the All Fours family, based on Auction Pitch.

> Apr 25: Ernest put in tel for Mrs. Jas Harris

> May 11: War with Mexico at standstill. War at home between Capital $ and labor is continuous and never ending > 18: Formed Booster club in Autos in Liberty, Ind. Good time and dinner at Condon Hotel, Liberty. Returned via Camden, Somerville & Collinsville - the driver came via Huston road to bring me near home.

Comment [FL3]: Most likely Mr. Miller traveled by railroad between Collinsville, Ohio and Liberty, Indiana, given the route that he described and given his reference to a "driver" brought him home via Huston Road, which runs between Collinsville and his home in Darrtown.

> 30: Indianapolis 2 am, could not get a place to sleep, walked the streets until daylight. Went to speedway, autos lined every road. Thirty cars started. More dangerous than a Spanish Bull fight. Speed 80 to 100 miles per hour. French car won; 500 miles in 6 hr. Rene Thomas won in a Delage car

> July 4: Jno Phrnis & I went to Hamilton and took in the Eagle picnic at the fairgrounds. Gov. Jas M Cox spoke - a good speech that was all right and rang true. Democracy that leads to Socialism all right, all right. I met the Gov. personally as he came on the grounds.

> 5: prepared manuscript, The Horse Back Riding of a boy, to be sent out tomorrow to Youths Companion, Boston, Mass.

> 6: I worked on book and Miss Bell Wilke assisted me in getting out the July Telephone bills. I sent ms to Youth Comp'n Pub.

> 23: Indications of war in Europe

> 27: I sent a check to the LaSalle Extension University in Chicago for 51.80 as payment in full of all acct on Law Course.

> 30: Autos are getting very thick. The U.S. is going Auto Crazy.

Comment [FL4]: Interesting comment; Mr. Miller - and presumably others - are still relying, primarily, on horse transportation.

> Aug 2: Prospect for a General war in Europe.

> 3: Plenty of war news. England, France & Russia vs Germany & Austria & Hungary. Bird men are fighting Garrod a French aviator drove his aero plane into a German dirigible carrying 21 men. Result. All killers

> 4: War in Europe rages. All Europe seems likely to be involved before it is over. Germans are invading Belgium. Belgians are resisting and have declared war.

> 5: England and Germany have declared war on each other. It now stands England, France, Russia, Belgium, Servia(?)p vs Germany, Austria, & Hungary. Italy has declared her neutrality

> 6: War is raging in Europe. War news is meager. Cables are cut leading to Germany. English cables are censored.

> 7: War news meager. Belgians are defeating Germans before the city of Leige. Loss of Germans 25,000. Naval battles are being fought but news not reliable.

> 9: War news is still one-sided. We know but little of what is actually happening in Europe.

> 23: War is assuming larger and larger proportions

> 30: War: War: what for nobody seems to know. Tens of thousands have been killed. Belgium, poor Belgium is blood soaked, for what? Because, she was in the path of the Kaiser's Army and the easiest road to the French Capitol.

> Sept 8: Mr. Mee is filling one (silo) next door to us. The word comes that the German troops before Paris are on the retreat. If the French and English get them on the run - goodby Old Kaiser Wilhelmina and all his nobles.

> Oct 15: My birthday 1862 midnight of fifteenth & sixteenth day of Oct.

> Nov 3: This is general election of State & Co. Officials. Saloon vs. prohibition, in six states.

> 25: This pm, I attended the obsequies of an Old settler Mrs Harriet Harris (nee Irwin) almost 88 years old.

> 28: A Great Russian victory is reported. About 100,000 Germans captured, killed & etc.

> Dec 4: A supposed lot of wild geese dropped down at & near Darrtown this p.m. And the excitement was something great. Kirk Mee & Fritz Smith made a bag of six. Geo Kolb's boys caught one and Geo Wagner killed one. Raymond Kane was scared out of a year's growth by running into two in the dark.

> 6: T.W. Coulter came down and collected for the "wild" geese that the Darrtown boys killed for him, by mistake. A great joke on the boys, as well as the geese.

Comment [FL5]: We may infer that Mr. Miller is referring to the Kirk Mee farm that was located immediately south of South Street in Darrtown, on the west side of St. Rt. 177 - which is across the road from the house where the Miller family lived during the 20th century.
